The New Rules Laid Down by the Eminent Lady Educator of England State Board of Education.

WILL NOW BE UNIFORMITY. STUDY AMERICAN SYSTEM.

Candidates All Over the State Will be Subjected to the Same Tests of Learning.

Copies of the new rules made out by the state board of education for the examinations of teachers throughout the state are being mailed to county superintendents today. These are the new rules for uniform county examina. tions in conformity with the new law governing teachers' examinations, which was passed at the recent session of the Legislature. The rules being of particular interest to all educators and those who intend to take up teaching are herewith printed in full:

1-Examinations for teachers' certificates shall be held by the county board of examiners in the various counties of the State of Utah for the year 1901 upon the following named dates, viz.: June 20-21-22, and August

2-The subjects assigned for the different days are as follows: Thursday, grammar, spelling, peda ogy and writing. Priday, arithmetic, reading, physiology and drawing. Saturday, history, geography and nature study. 3-Lists of questions will be forward. ed by the state superintendent to the county superintendent so as to reach him not later than the day immediately preceding the first date set for the examination. The envelopes containing the lists of questions will be sealed and should not be opened until the day in-dicated upon the outside of the en-

4-Examinations shall be required of all teachers applying for certificates, except those whose certificates may be renewed by the county board of examiners upon the ground of exceptional

5-Candidates for a county certificate whether of grammar grade or primary grade, must secure an average of 70 per cent and must not fall below 50 per cent in any subject. 6-It is recommended by the board that the papers written by any applicant shall upon the written request of the applicants, be transmitted by the superintendent of the county in which the applicant took the examination to the superintendent of the county in which the applicant may desire to secure a certificate, to be passed upon by the county board of examiners of such

7-It is also recommended that all examination papers be kept on file for two years, and that no recognition be given to any set of papers as a basis of certification after the expiration of two years.

8-The county superintendent should eport to the chairman of the state poard of education, within ten days after the close of the examination, number of those applying for a certificate of each grade, and the number in ach passed and rejected.

RULES FOR EXAMINATIONS.

1-Each candidate should be required to fill out a registration blank furnished by the board of examiners. 2-No explanation of questions may be given by any one, unless publicly for the benefit of all candidates; and no one may inspect or criticise any work while the same is in progress. 3—Candidates must not, during the examination, communicate in any way with any person other than an examiner. Any effort upon the part of any candidate to obtain aid in any improper way, or to give it, will be followed by the cancelling of the entire examination of any one so offending.

4-No candidate may be permitted to leave the room and return during the progress of any examination, except in case of sickness.

So terrible is the itching at times, especially when the body is overheated, that the almost distracted sufferer feels that he could tear the skin to pieces, and that he must scratch or go crazy. He knows from experience that this only makes matters worse, but, made desperate by the terrible burning and itching, he is for the time being indifferent to after effects. There are several forms of Eczema, the moist, or weeping kind, that comes in little pustules which discharge a watery, sticky fluid, which dries and peels off in bran-like scales. So profuse is the discharge at times that large scales or crusts form, which are both painful and troublesome, and not easily removed. Red, disfiguring bumps and sores are symptoms of Eczema. The dry form usually attacks the head, hands and feet; the skin, becoming hard and rough, often cracking open and bleeding, and attended with much itching. Eczema depends upon a poisoned con-

The itching, especially at night, was simply terrible; it would almost disappear at times, only to return worse than ever. I had tried many highly recommended preparations without benefit, and hearing of S. S. determined to give it a fair triel.

extent relieve the inflammation and itching, cannot be considered cures, because external remedies do not preparations without benent, and hearing of S.
S. S. determined to give it a fair trial, and was inexpressibly delighted when a few bottles cured me entirely, removing every blemish and pimple from my body. I shall not fail to recommend S. S. S. whenever an opportunity occurs.

The constitutional or blood diseases. Salves, ointments, powders, fotions and soaps do more harm than good, by smearing over and sealing up the rores of the skin three.

forcing the poison back into the blood. S. S. S. antidotes and neutralizes the acid poisons and drives out of the circulation all impurities and humors, and the pure, rich blood that is carried to the diseased skin quickly allays the inflammation, opens the clogged up pores, and the skin becomes soft, smooth and ready to perform its proper functions. To be rid of Eczema you must first purify and build up the blood, and nothing so surely and effectually does this as S. S. S., the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier. Standard Dictionary

Because it represents the most reliable, most eminent, and the most recent scholarship in all the departments of knowledge and information, the Standard Dictionary has become the universally accepted authority of the English-speaking race. In South Africa, Japan, China, Siam, India, Mexico, the West Indies and South America its substantial merits have secured for the Standard Dictionary a cordial welcome whereever the English language is spoken. In the United States, England and Canada, it is everywhere the leading and favorite authority. It is international in its scope, and its popularity is worldwide. It contains over 304,000 vocabulary terms—73,000 more than any other dictionary.
